Natur und Kultur am Dreiländereck

Nature et culture dans la région des trois frontières

Did you know that a cartographer from this region gave the name "America" to the New World?

He was Martin Waldseemüller (1470 - 1520). On his famous map of the world, printed in 1507, the name America (after the Italian seafarer Amerigo Vespucci) was used for the first time.

Cartographers from this region have designed this panorama of the European Region of Upper Rhine.

Moreover, we produce excursion and recreational maps as well as thematic maps of all kinds.
